Spring 2010 Schedule

Start Date: January 22, 2010
No class on April 2, 2010

End Date: April 30, 2010
Total number of classes: 14

Family Music for Toddlers (16 months - 3 Years)

Weekly 30-minute class on Fridays at 10:15 a.m

Tuition: $182 Material fees: $30.00, includes shipping. Total: $212.00

This 30-minute class is designed to bring the joy of music and movement to toddlers and their caregivers. Lessons have been carefully formed to cater to the exploratory, impulsive nature of toddlers.

In this class, the toddler absorbs language and delights in the repetition of songs. Spatial awareness is strengthened as we dance and bounce. Manipulation of simple instruments feeds the senses and offers an opportunity to learn social skills in retrieving and returning the instruments. Activities include singing, echoes, dancing, focused listening and simple instrument playing, creating an environment in which the child's music aptitude is nurtured and skills are developed.

Cycle of Seasons (Ages 3 - 5 years)

Weekly 45-minute class on Fridays at 11:00 a.m

Tuition: $224 Material fees: $38.50, includes shipping. Total: $262.50

This 45-minute class is designed to nurture the emergent independence of 3s, 4s, and young 5s.

Activities include lots of singing, chants and rhymes, listening games, patterns to echo, and movement games, all of which nurture the child's musical development while satisfying the child's need to learn in a holistic environment.

Parents stay for the 45-minute class, although some of the activities are designed to have the children participate independently of their parents.

Home materials include a CD, songbook, and manipulatives that allow the learning and fun to continue at home.
